OPEN GOAT SHOW RULES

All entries must be submitted online by April 28, 2019 to avoid a late fee.
No paper entries will be accepted.

Entry Fee - $15 per animal / Youth Showmanship - $10 per exhibitor
($10 per head late fee will be added to entries received after April 28, 2019)

Health Rules:

As set forth in Florida Livestock Health Regulations and Requirements Section 5C-4.005, Health papers for show and/or exhibit goats will be inspected upon arrival.

All goats older than six months of age consigned for public exhibition in Florida must be covered by an Official Health Certificate issued by an accredited veterinarian certifying the animals to be free from symptoms of contagious or infectious diseases. All goats must be participating in the Scrapies Eradication Program. All tattoos and ear tags must correspond with Scrapie number.

Eligibility:

The Open Meat Goat Show is open to Youth and Adults. There will be a Youth Showmanship Contest that will be divided into a PeeWee (Age 7 or Younger), Junior Division (age 8-12) and a Senior Division (age 13-18). Showmanship age is determined by exhibitors age as of the date of the show.

General Rules & Information for Exhibitors:

1. All goats must have scrapies numbers and they must be listed on the health certification papers.
2. All wethers will be weighed after they pass through the health inspection.
3. Goats that participate in the Meat Goat Show may not participate in the Dairy Goat Show and vice versa.
4. Only youth up to 18 years of age will be allowed to participate in the Youth Showmanship contest.
5. Participants are responsible for their own feed, water buckets, collars, hay, etc. Participants are also responsible for the leads, leashes and collars required to contain their animal while on the fairgrounds, as stalls will not be provided
6. Judges decision is final in the show ring.
7. ALL decisions regarding show animals remain with the Show Officials.
