BELT BUCKLES FOR SHOWMANSHIP WINNERS

New for 2018

- Community service opportunity through Perry Volunteer Outreach, information is located on the next page.
- 2 scholarships offered to one senior swine showman and one senior cattle showman. Application is attached.
- Adult livestock judging division to be held in conjunction with the Jr. and Sr. Livestock Judging contest. All livestock judging registration will take place on site.

Community Service Opportunity

Partnering with Perry Volunteer Outreach, the JCYF Showring Showdown is offering our exhibitors the opportunity to give back. PVO is a faith based organization that is a non-profit charity established in 2000 to assist those in Perry and south Houston County, Georgia area with emergency financial assistance for housing, utilities, and medical needs. Parked between the cattle and hog barns will be a Georgia National Fair Champion trailer that we hope to fill with new, unwrapped toys. We sincerely hope that you will take part in the opportunity to make sure that children in Houston County and surrounding counties will have a merrier Christmas. All donations should be placed in the trailer before the beginning of showmanship on Saturday Dec. 15, 2018.
